(2) Every student of the University shall be a member and shall be deemed to have become a member of the student's organization upon his registration as a student, and his membership shall cease upon the cessation of his registration as a student.

46.- (1) The functions of students organization shall be conducted subject to this Charter and in accordance with its Constitution as approved by the Council.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of the provisions of sub-rule (1), the students' organization shall not engage in any political activity on any campus of the University.

(3) For the purpose of this rule-

(a) "campus" includes any place where the activities or affairs of the University to which a staff association or a students' organization belongs may under lease or licence take place, be conducted or where the residence of students is established, provided, organized or overseen whether regularly or intermittently or on a particular occasion or occasions;

(b) "engaging in political parties activity" includes regular or intermittent recruitment, training, registering or enrollment of political party members, regular or intermittent organization of meetings, seminars and conferences for a political party or political parties, operating a branch office or cell or the like of a political party or political parties and matters of a similar nature;
(c) “student organization” includes its members.

PART VI
ADMINISTRATION, WELFARE AND DISCIPLINE OF STUDENT

47.- (1) In this Part, unless the context requires otherwise:
(a) “Disciplinary authority” means the Deputy Vice Chancellor responsible for administrative matters exercising the powers conferred upon him by rule 51 of this Schedule, and includes any person to whom such powers have been delegated in accordance with rule 52 of this Schedule;
(b) “disciplinary offence” means the contravention of any by-laws made under rule 49 of this Schedule, where rule 49 the contravention constitutes a disciplinary offence.

48.- (1) There shall be a Dean of Students for the University, who shall be recruited through the procedure of public advertisement and hold office in accordance with the Charter.

(2) The Dean of Students shall be responsible to the Deputy Vice Chancellor responsible for administrative matters for the proper, efficient and effective administration of the affairs and the general welfare of the students of the University.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provisions of this Charter the administration of the affairs of the students of the University shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this Charter and any regulations or by-laws made under it.

49.- (1) The Council may make by-laws for the maintenance of discipline and any other matter on the administration and welfare of the students.

(2) Any by-laws made under subrule (1) of this rule shall be published in the University prospectus and shall be brought to the notice of the students in such manner as the Council may determine.

(3) By-laws made under subrule (1) of this rule may provide that the contravention of any of the by-laws shall constitute a disciplinary offence and may further provide the punishment that may be imposed for such a disciplinary offence.

50.- (1) The Vice Chancellor shall have the power to suspend an individual student or a group of students who instigate(s) other students to behave in a manner that is likely to endanger other persons and or property of the University.

(2) The Vice Chancellor, under the instruction of the Council, shall have the power to suspend the whole student body if in the Council’s opinion there is an imminent danger to lives and property.

51.- (1) Every charge of a disciplinary offence against a student shall be investigated by the Deputy Vice Chancellor responsible for administrative matters who shall impose such punishment as he may consider appropriate after inquiring into the offence in accordance with the procedure prescribed by rule 53 and 54 of this Schedule and upon being satisfied that the charge against the student has been proved.

52.- (1) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor responsible for administrative matters may, by writing under his hand, delegate, subject to such limitations as he may prescribe, all or any of the powers vested in him by rule 51 of this Schedule to any subordinate officer who reports directly to him.

(2) The dean of student or any other holder of the office responsible for the general administration and welfare of students shall not be appointed, serve or act as a disciplinary authority.

53.- (1) Disciplinary Proceedings under this Charter shall be either formal or summary and the procedure for instituting such proceedings shall be as provided for in the Charter or as may be prescribed.

(2) Formal proceedings shall be instituted where, in the opinion of the disciplinary authority, the disciplinary offence which the student is alleged to have committed is of such gravity that should he be found guilty of it, it may warrant his dismissal or rustication from the University.

(3) Summary proceedings shall be instituted where, in the opinion of the disciplinary authority, the disciplinary offence which the student is alleged to have committed is of such gravity that should he be found guilty of it, may not warrant his dismissal or rustication from the University.

(4) Notwithstanding the nature of the procedure intended to be adopted by the disciplinary authority, no disciplinary proceedings shall be instituted against any student after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the commission of a neglect, offence or, in the case of a continuance of injury or damage, within fifteen days next after its cessation.

54.- (1) No formal proceedings for a disciplinary offence shall be instituted against a student unless he is previously served with a copy of the charge, setting out the nature of the offence which he is alleged to have committed; and the charge shall be prepared by the disciplinary authority after carrying out such preliminary investigations as he may consider necessary. The charge shall state briefly the nature of the offence which the accused is alleged to have committed, and shall set out in concise form the allegations made against the accused student.

(2) The charge as drawn up shall then be served upon the accused student, together with a notice addressed to him, inviting him to state in writing, and within such period as may be specified in the notice, the grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself.

(3) Where the accused student fails or refuses to make representations in writing giving grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself within the period prescribed in the notice, or makes representations which in the opinion of the disciplinary authority do not amount to complete defense of the offence charged, the disciplinary authority shall appoint an inquiry officer or officers, to hold an inquiry into the charge.

(4) The inquiry officer(s) shall notify the accused student of the day, date, time and place upon and at which the inquiry shall be held which shall not be open to the public.

(5) The accused student shall have a right to appear before the inquiry officer, examine witnesses and be heard in his own defense; save that failure by the accused student to appear at the inquiry shall not vitiate the proceedings.

(6) The accused student shall have a right-
(a) to cross-examine any witness examined by the inquiry officer or by the disciplinary authority or his representative;
(b) to examine and make copies of any document produced as evidence against him;
(c) to call witnesses on his own behalf and produce any document relevant to the inquiry.

(7) The inquiry officer may take into consideration any evidence which he considers relevant to the subject of the inquiry before him, notwithstanding that such evidence would not be admissible under the law relating to evidence; and shall record the gist of the evidence adduced before him.

(8) Upon the conclusion of the inquiry, the inquiry officer shall forward the record of proceedings before him, together with his report on the proceedings to the disciplinary authority.

(9) A report under sub-rule (8) of this rule shall-
(a) state whether in the opinion of the inquiry officer the charge against the accused student has been proved;
(b) state the reasons for holding that opinion;
(c) state any fact which, in the opinion of the inquiry officer, aggravates or mitigates the gravity of the act or omission which was the subject matter of the charge;
(d) state any other fact which, in the opinion of the inquiry officer, is relevant;
(e) not contain any recommendation as to the form or nature of the punishment to be awarded.

(10) Upon receipt of the record of proceedings and the report, the disciplinary authority shall, after considering the evidence and the report of the inquiry officer, make and record a finding whether or not, in his opinion, the accused student is guilty of the offence with which he was charged.

(11) Where the disciplinary authority's finding as to the guilt or innocence of the accused is contrary to the opinion of the inquiry officer as expressed in his report, the disciplinary authority shall record his reasons for the finding.

(12) Where the disciplinary authority finds the accused student guilty, he shall proceed to impose the punishment prescribed by the by-laws in respect of the disciplinary offence or such lesser punishment as he deems appropriate.

55-(1) Where the Students Disciplinary Authority decides to institute summary proceedings against a student he shall follow a procedure to be prescribed under the Charter.

(2) The disciplinary authority shall appoint the day, date, time and place for the investigation of the charge or charges and shall give the accused student notice of it.

(3) The investigation of the charge or charges shall be carried out in such manner as the disciplinary authority may determine and the accused student shall have a right to appear at the investigation and make his defense; save that failure by the accused student to appear the investigation shall not vitiate proceedings.

(4) Where at any stage of the proceedings before a finding is made, it appears to the disciplinary authority from the nature of the facts and circumstances disclosed that it is necessary or desirable that the matter be dealt with by way of formal proceedings, the disciplinary authority may terminate the summary proceedings and institute formal proceedings in accordance with rule 53(2).

(5) Upon the conclusion of the investigation, the disciplinary authority shall make a finding whether or not, in his opinion, the accused student is guilty of the disciplinary offence or offences with which he is charged, and if he finds the accused student guilty, the disciplinary authority shall proceed to impose such punishment as he may consider appropriate; save that under no circumstance shall, on investigation under this rule, the accused student be punished by dismissal or rustication from the University.

56.- (1) There is hereby established a Students Disciplinary Appeals Committee of the University.

(2) The Disciplinary Appeals Committee shall be composed of-

(a) a Chairman, who shall be appointed by the Council;

(b) five members elected by the Council from amongst its members, one of whom shall be a member elected to the Council by the student's organization;

(c) a legally qualified person holding office in the Attorney General’s Chambers nominated in that behalf by the Attorney General.

(3) The Chairman appointed under paragraph (a) of sub-rule (2) of this Rule shall neither be a member of the Council, nor a member of University Staff.

(4) The composition of the Students Disciplinary Appeals Committee established under sub-rule (1) of this rule shall not include any person who was or is involved in the investigation, hearing or decision of any matter connected or otherwise associated with any particular appeal to the committee in which such a matter is directly or indirectly relevant prior to the commencement of the appeal process.

(5) The quorum for the meetings of the Disciplinary Appeals Committee shall be the Chairman and three other members.

(6) The provisions of the Third Schedule shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to the tenure of office of the members of the Disciplinary Appeals Committee, their retirement, the right to terminate the appointment, and appointment of a new member to fill any vacancy, and also in relation to the proceedings and meetings of the Committee, as they apply to the Council.

57.- (1) Where a student has been punished for any disciplinary offence and he wishes to appeal, he may, while carrying out the punishment, appeal to the Disciplinary Appeals Committee within thirty days of the decision of the disciplinary authority.

(2) Where a student wishes to appeal pursuant to subrule (1) of this rule, he shall, within not more than three days of the decision of the disciplinary authority, give a written notice of his intention to so appeal to the disciplinary authority who shall forthwith submit it to the Chairman of the Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

(3) On every appeal under this Rule the student appealing and the disciplinary authority shall both have a right to appear before and be heard by the Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

(4) On appeal under this Rule the Disciplinary Appeals Committee may-

(a) set aside the finding made against the student and the punishment imposed on him; or

(b) uphold the finding and the punishment imposed; or

(c) uphold the finding and reduce or enhance the punishment imposed upon the student.

THIRD SCHEDULE
(Under Article 21)

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COUNCIL

1. The Chairman of the Council shall hold office for a period of four years from the date of appointment.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the term of all members of the Council, other than the Chairman and members ex-officio, shall be three years and all such members shall retire on the last day of the third year, and their places shall be filled by the newly appointed, or as the case may be, elected members who shall, immediately upon such appointment or election, be members of the Council save that:

(a) nothing in this Schedule shall be construed as preventing any person, otherwise eligible for the appointment or election as a member, from being reappointed or re-elected, as the case may be, for other terms of office;

(b) in the case of a member elected by the National Assembly, or House of Representatives, he shall cease to be a member if at any time prior to the date of his retirement he ceases to be a member of the National Assembly or House of Representatives;

(c) the President of the students’ organization, shall cease to be a member, if at any time prior to the date of his retirement under this paragraph, he ceases to hold the office of the President of the students’ organization.

3. Nothing in the Third Schedule shall be construed as preventing any appointing, nominating or electing authority from terminating the appointment of any member appointed or elected prior to the date when such member is required to retire from office under Third Schedule.

4. Where any member absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Council without reasonable excuse, the Council shall advise the appointing authority of the fact and the appointing authority may, if it deems fit so to do, terminate the appointment of the member and appoint or, as the case may be elect another member in his place.

5.-(1) Where any member of the Council ceases to be such member by resignation or death or by virtue of the operation of the exception in paragraph (b) of this Rule or is unable to perform his functions by reason of his absence from the United Republic or by reason of any infirmity of body or mind or where the appointing authority terminates his appointment under rule 3, the appointing authority may appoint or, as the case may be, elect another member in his place and the member so appointed or elected shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for the remainder of the term of his predecessor.

(2) Where in the opinion of the appointing authority the absence or infirmity of any member is of a temporary nature, it may appoint or, as the case may be, elect a temporary member to take his place and such temporary member shall, so long as he remains a temporary member, have and exercise all the powers and functions of a member of the Council, save that on the resumption of office by the substantive member the temporary member shall cease to hold office.

6. The Deputy Vice-Chancellors shall have a right to be present at every meeting of the Council and to participate in its deliberations but shall have no right to vote.

7.- (1) Subject to any general or specific direction given by the Chancellor, the Council shall meet not less than four times during every financial year and at such additional times as may be fixed by the Chairman or, if he is absent from the United Republic or unable for any reason to act, the Vice-Chairman. Provided that the Chairman shall, at the request of at least ten members, convene or cause to be convened a meeting of the Council within thirty days of such request being made to him in writing.

(2) The Secretary to the Council shall give to each member a notice of not less than fourteen days of the time and place of the meeting.

8. The Council shall elect one of its members to be the Vice-Chairperson and any member elected as Vice-Chairman shall subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office of the Vice-Chairperson for a term of three years from the date of his election.

9.- (1) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Council.

(2) Where at any meeting of the Council, the Chairperson is absent, the Vice-Chairman shall preside.

(3) In the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairman at any meeting of the Council, the members present may, from amongst their number, elect a temporary Chairperson who shall preside at that meeting.

(4) The Chairman, Vice-Chairman or temporary Chairperson presiding at any meeting of the Council shall have a vote and in the event of an equality of votes, shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

10.- (1) At any meeting of the Council not less than half of the members in office for the time being shall constitute a quorum.
(2) If a quorum is not reached within half-an-hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the members present, or the majority of them, or any one member if only one is present, or the Secretary if no member is present, may adjourn the meeting to any time not later than fourteen days from the date of adjournment.

11. Subject to the provisions relating to a casting vote, all issues at a meeting of the Council shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present at the meeting, and if any member fails or refuses to vote on any issue, his vote shall be counted in the negative.

12. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Schedule, decisions may be made by the Council without a meeting, by circulation of the relevant papers among the members and the expression of the views of the majority of them in writing, save that any member shall be entitled to require that any such decision be deferred and the subject matter be considered at a meeting of the Council.

13. The Council may with the approval of the Minister, issue directions prescribing fees and allowances payable to the members of the Council, the Senate, the Convocation or a Board.

14. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule the Council may regulate its own proceedings.
